Catholic Board Welcomes New Superintendent

Waterloo Region, ON – The Waterloo Catholic District School Board is pleased to welcome Superintendent Maria Ivankovic to the Catholic education team in Waterloo Region.

Maria – previously principal of St. Elizabeth Seton Catholic Elementary School in Burlington -- joins WCDSB as Superintendent of Learning: School Effectiveness. She holds a B.A. from McMaster University and a Master of Science in Education degree from Niagara University in Lewiston, N.Y. She is qualified in both English as a Second Language and French and will supervise the St. Benedict and St. Mary's families of elementary schools.

"Maria brings to Waterloo Region a wealth of experience, enthusiasm and a strong dedication to publicly-funded Catholic education", said Director of Education Roger Lawler. "Her leadership and management skills, along with her broad knowledge of effective strategies to promote student learning and growth, will benefit our students for many years to come".

The Waterloo Catholic District School Board, representing more than 100,000 Catholic school supporters, operates 51 schools and five adult education facilities serving more than 40,000 elementary, secondary and continuing education students in Waterloo Region – continuing a 175 year tradition of quality, inclusive, faith-based education first begun in 1836.
