4.1 Parliamentary Procedure/Roberts Rules of Order In-service

   M. Thomson Howell introduced Douglas McCarthy our facilitator.

   Trustees received “Effective Use of Robert’s Rules of Order” handout and Douglas explained the basic principals of parliamentary process and the fundamental purposes of parliamentary law. A parliamentary process makes equals out of unequals and helps us to make decisions. He recommended reading “Parliamentary Procedure at a Glance”.

   Trustees were advised of the wording to use when making a motion. State exactly what the motion is. A motion should be clear and call for an action. The first three words of a motion are “I move that…” and needs a seconder. The chair states the motion and it then belongs to the assembly. An amendment should read “I move that the motion be amended”… by adding, deleting or substituting words. Motions tabled must come back to the meeting. Use the word deferred if you want to discuss and bring back to another meeting.

   M. Thomson Howell thanked Douglas for a very practical and useful in-service.
