WCDSB Grad Becomes New President of St. Jerome's University

Waterloo Region's Catholic Schools Congratulate Dr. Katherine M. Bergman

Waterloo Region, ON – The students, staff and trustees of Waterloo Region's Catholic Schools are thrilled to congratulate Dr. Katherine M. Bergman on her appointment as the seventh President and Vice-Chancellor of St. Jerome's University.

Dr. Bergman attended St. Anne and St. Agnes Catholic Elementary Schools, St. David's Junior High School and St. Mary's High School before commencing her university education. She assumes her new post on August 1, 2012.

Waterloo Region's Catholic Schools and St. Jerome's University share a long and storied relationship -- dating from 1865 -- and WCDSB is very proud to count one of our graduates as the leader of one of North America's finest Catholic post-secondary institutions.

We offer Dr. Bergman our prayers and best wishes and we look forward to making our great and enduring partnership with SJU even stronger in the future.

The Waterloo Catholic District School Board, representing more than 100,000 Catholic school supporters, operates 52 schools and five adult education facilities serving more than 40,000 elementary, secondary and continuing education students in Waterloo Region – continuing a 176-year tradition of quality, inclusive, faith-based education.
