Catholic Board Superintendent Heads Provincial School Board Business Officials Organization

Waterloo Region, ON – The Waterloo Catholic District School Board's Chief Financial Officer, Shesh Maharaj, has been elected president of the Ontario Association of School Business Officials (OASBO) – an organization with more than 1,000 members across the province.

A Certified General Accountant (CGA) Maharaj, who joined the Board in 1999, also holds a Bachelor of Commerce degree and served as the Board's Internal Auditor, Accounting Supervisor and Senior Manager of Finance before becoming CFO and one of Ontario's youngest senior business officials at age 35 in 2009.

He has served on many Ministry of Education working groups to develop best practices and guidelines on provincial initiatives ranging from interim financial reporting to procurement directives and Supervisory Officer performance appraisals. He also serves on Conestoga College's accounting program advisory council and has served as a DECA judge and as a mentor for high school, college and university students wishing to pursue careers in accounting.

The students, staff and trustees of Waterloo Region's Catholic schools congratulate Shesh on his accomplishments and wish him well as OASBO president.

The Waterloo Catholic District School Board, representing more than 100,000 Catholic school supporters, operates 52 schools and five adult education facilities serving more than 40,000 elementary, secondary and continuing education students in Waterloo Region – continuing a 176-year tradition of quality, inclusive, faith-based education.
