Catholic Board Wins International Business Association Award

Budget process earns kudos for fourth consecutive year

Waterloo Region, ON – For the fourth consecutive year, the Waterloo Catholic District School Board has received the Association of School Business Officials International (ASBO) Meritorious Budget Award for excellence in budget presentation.

QuickFacts

- ✓ The Meritorious Budget Award is awarded only to school boards that have met or exceeded the Meritorious Budget Award criteria;
- ✓ Award recipients must have presented a budget that:
 - promotes sound fiscal management practices;
 - encourages both short and long range budgetary goals;
 - defines up to date budget practices, challenges and methodologies applied; and,
 - provides a clear presentation which is readily understandable to people without a financial background.
- ✓ The award was developed by ASBO to enhance school business officials' skills in developing, analyzing, and presenting school system budgets;
- ✓ The award process provides constructive feedback from ASBO on how current budget process can be improved;
- ✓ The Association of School Business Officials International is based in Reston, Virginia.
