3	Chair's Report <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Debrief Feb Events (Hot Chocolate, Shrove Tuesday, and Olympic day, DO Gibson) -noted that hot chocolate was logistically difficult for staff and people providing the hot chocolate (was enjoyed) -Pancakes were well received. Kindergarten requested getting their pancakes closer to lunch. Next year, we could start later because we were finished by about 10 a.m. Advertising might need to include that this doesn't take the place of a meal (although we had lots of leftovers). We made too many pancakes. Could benefit from a measuring tool so that pancakes were the same size. Didn't seem to be		Mission Day Action Items: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Missy reached out to Clover Kitchens for a menu and pricing -Missy emailed and phoned Mark about DJ'ing a glow in the dark dance party. Mark is not available. - Missy will follow up with the SIT to get staff input on changing play day to a whole school event. -Missy will include Mission Day Basket sign up in the late March weekly memo after discussion with SIT. -Brenda is looking into a better cotton candy machine to rent -Missy will contact Shades Mills and Laurel creek to see if they could present animals at the Mission Day. -Missy will reach out to bubbleology to see if they could provide a low cost option. -Bubbleology is $500 per hour (free flow or a show) -Mission Day communication (treat baskets): ☰ Copy of 2025 Mission Day: Basket Raffle April Updates: Mark is not available.

	an issue as students could have more if they wanted. -DO Gibson was well-received by staff and students. We will have a different presenter next year so that we experience a variety of presenters. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Plan for Mission Day: we discussed having the Mission Day during the day as opposed to in the evening. There was talk about families not be able to attend due to needing to work. ● Staff could run their own Mission Day style play day (rather than just a Primary Play Day). Missy will follow up with the SIT to get staff input on changing play day to a whole school event. ● Fire truck in the front was not a great fit so we won't include them this year ● Liz will recruit student helpers again for volunteer hours and to run low-org games and help with freezies ● we will make this the priority item for our April meeting. ● tattoo station to be included 		Zoo to You not available. Reptile person too expensive. Bubble lady is too expensive. Spiderman and Spidegirl are an affordable option. Booked. Still looking for a good priced candy floss machine. Liz is recruiting volunteers from high school to run most games and stations. Pam bought chips to sell. We will sell other items as well and determine ticket pricing at May Meeting. May meeting will be Mission Day items. -Baskets have been determined. Information will go out in May Family message through School Messenger. (Catholic Education Week). Baskets to be done on June 2. -going to pick up bases from the dollar store and wrap from amazon -Tim Hortons Camp <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ counsellors come in and run a camp experience with 3 classes ○ 6 weeks, 1 day a week ○ Went well but will wait a year to invite back (every other year)
